WINSLOW SURPRISE; PEOPLE.

Forecaster Cox of the United States Signal Service having decided that persons betting that Thursday's down-pouring was only a September rain and not the equinoctial storm had won the bookmakers paid off accordingly and as the "weather man" furnished for Friday the most charming sunshine and air even the losers were satisfied. There was the usual large crowd at Harlem, where the same nineteen pencils displayed the odds, and sold their wares with the low commission, about quotations of which the curb stone brokers here and there about the country are so dissatisfied. The bookmakers seen this year in Chicago are in nowise more liberal minded than their predecessors, but the spirit of competition is now so keen, as to force men up to "close to a Dutch" as the 9, 13, 17 to 1 indicates. The track was heavy and holding. The day was devoid of incident.

For the opening event Friskal, opening at 8 to 5, advanced to 3 to 1, and couldn't run at all. Eliza Blazes was first off to an excellent start. St. Elena soon headed her, as also did Exquisite. St. Elena didn't last long, and when Exquisite struck the home stretch Eliza Blazes and John Sack were next and close up, while four lengths back came Waubun, leading the bunch behind. Exquisite led to the last sixteenth, where J. McDonald, by hard work, got Waubun to her head, and, although Waubun swerved badly at the finish, he was first home from Exquisite, who easily beat Eliza Blazes, and of the strung out field Friskal was near the rear.

"Time at last makes all things even," sang the sport. "If Genna was off badly Thursday, she got a flying start Friday." Genna, quickest to break to a straggling start, got two lengths in front in the first fifty yards, and, never extended, she won hands down from Falomacita (beaten an op n length). The third place was hotly contested by Andes, Blue Lick, Silver Tone and Old Fox, the former winning; the others away back. Arthur McKnight got a particularly bad start, which shows his namesake is playing no favorites. Genna is bred to fly in the mud, as both sire and dam (Balgowan and Paroles) were noted performers in heavy going.

What er Lou, one of the best of western handicap horses, whose last previous start was for the Wheeler Handicap at Washington Park, scared out the contenders, Richard J. and Al Fresco, thus having practically a walkover, although against his chance 2 to 5 might be had, the bookmakers saying: "He may bleed as at his last start." On sufferance Red Gidd led for over five-eighths of the distance, the favorite lying second. At the first turn Uarda was in the rear but at the turn into the home stretch, as Red Gidd quit and What er Lou took command, she went to the second position and flattered her backers. She "ran out" however, and finally had to be whipped hard in order to get the place from Pitfall, who, at the last quarter was ten lengths behind her. Uarda beat Pitfall off at the finish, and was fairly well up to What er Lou, who had been pulled up and was walking.

Sunburst had an easy thing of it. Bloss laid him off in fifth position up the back stretch, closed gradually from the last three-eighths to the last three-sixteenths, and then the race was over, Cushing's old horse galloping to the wire. Chugnut was never worse than second, and so finished, beating Double Dummy easily for the place. The latter, fourth up the back stretch, had a tight fit for third money, with Overland beaten a neck. Pete Kitchen was first and Del Paso II. third to the last quarter, where both stopped. Jack of Hearts and Sunny were outclassed. The latter finished up at the last sixteenth post.

The fifth race was the betting event of the day. Greyhurst, opening at 3 to 2, was displaced as favorite by Czarowitz, backed from 4 down to 2, and at the post it was 2 to 1 against either of them, and Pinar del Rio had been backed from 15 down to 5 to 1 and Moroni so jumped on that his 15 shrank to 8 to 1. An excellent start, and at the turn Greyhurst and Innendo were paired in front, Czarowitz third, Moroni fourth, the latter two close up. Last of a straggling lot behind was Pinar del Rio, interfered with around the first turn. On the upper turn Innendo got some lengths away from Greyhurst, Czarowitz and Moroni. And now, in fifth position, loomed up through the haze the "all green" of Pinar del Rio. Greyhurst stopped a quarter away from home, and, pulled up, finished among the trailers. The others came on bravely, and Innendo, supposedly winning, was sent to the whip at the last sixteenth, as her jockey saw the coal black Jones coming fast with Pinar del Rio. The last-named ran by the others as if they were tied to the fence, and won very easily from Innendo, second, a length better than Moroni, third, he three lengths ahead of Czarowitz.

The close of the program produced a race where everything was as mixed as the signs of a Wentworth avenue butcher which read "Sugar cured corned beef." Glenmoynne opened at even money, but when the unaccustomed announcement was made in the betting ring "Glenmoynne wears two bar plates," a German bookmaker said, "Ah, ha! I smell a mices," and went to 8 to 5 and his brethren finally carried the price of Foster's old gelding up to 18 to 5. Meantime a strong play on Heigh Ho cut his price in half, and the Governor Sheehan money was put on in bunches. Soon the Glenmoynne money came and the 6 to 5 place and 11 to 20 show was rubbed first and at the post 2 to 1 straight was posted. Ramiro II. had always stood firm at 2 to 1, but now advanced to 2 to 1. There was more than the usual time allowed for betting, and the signs around the judges' stand threatened stormy weather, but the horses finally came to the post, and after some delay caused by the cavorting of Ramiro II. a good start was effected. Heigh Ho and Marzella opened a big gap at once, so that at the half-mile gound they raced paired several lengths better than Glenmoynne, third, he closely followed by Ramiro II. Then came Governor Sheehan many lengths away, and Tranby and Winslow were not within speaking distance of the Governor. Around the upper turn the positions were the same, and it did not look possible for Glenmoynne to ever get to the leaders; in fact, Ramiro II was lapped on to Foster's horse just before he swung into the home stretch and even money was offered that Laudeman's horse would beat Glenmoynne. The horses behind were still badly strung out, but Governor Sheehan showed to be done. When Heigh Ho struck the straight J. Reiff took her to the inside fence and Marzella soon died off. Duke and Wishard's filly looked all over a winner at the final eighth, she there being three lengths better than Glenmoynne who was swerving badly. Ramiro II. was rolling around like a dismantled bulk and "Skeeks" pulled him up. A sixteenth farther along and Heigh Ho stopped badly so that Bloss got Glenmoynne together, and although he was running very slowly (the mud was like putty and must have been a foot in depth) it was seen that he was first home by a wide margin. But when Winslow was placed second and Tranby third, the greatest astonishment prevailed, as specta-

Winner—B. g, by Wawekus—Glenline. Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving and staggering; the next three were only crawling along. It was a bad lot. Waubun won simply because he had more staying power than the others. McDonald came close to the rail, saved ground on the turn, and punished the gelding unmercifully through the stretch. Exquisite had the speed of the bunch, but was tired enough to lie down when the wire was reached. My Friend was coming and Eliza Blaze stopping the last sixteenth. It was a tight fit for third place. My Friend is a good looker and on breeding should be a mud-lark. St. Elena ran about three-eighths of a mile and quit. She is a good maiden and may win before long on a fast track.

Waubun, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Exquisite, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Eliza Blaze, show even.

8640 SECOND RACE—5-8 Mile. 2-year-olds. Selling.

Winner—B. f, by Balgowan—Paroles. Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second well in hand. Third and fourth driving hard. Genna reveled in the going. She was off with the track and made every post a winning one. She is a nice little filly. Falomacita is fast. She had some bad luck. Still she ran her race. Andes, from a bad beginning, made up ground throughout. Silver Tone has evidently staled. He was off in front and had no excuses. Old Fox is a plodder and Hero Jr a quitter. The latter showed a lot of speed but stopped in a stride. Blue Lick looked to have a winning chance on the turn but could not last in the going.

Scratched—Free Hand, 100; Master Buck, 100; The Wooser, 102; Alice B, 100; Mizzoura, 105.

Overweights—Teutons, 2 pounds; Alpina, 2.

Genna, place, 3 to 5. Falomacita, place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Andes, show, 4 to 1.

Winner—B. c, by White—Alma Lamar. Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second under punishment; third eased at the end. What er Lou by far outclassed the field. He liked the going and looked a winner at every spot of the road. He is a good class horse and was in a soft spot. Uarda ran a fairly good race. She must have light weight to do her best. Red Gidd showed some speed but tried to run out all the way and finally did so on the stretch turn. Surmount and Lucky Monday were beaten off after going a half mile. The former looked high in flash and nowhere near a race.

Scratched—Richard J., 104; Al Fresco, 107.

Uarda, place, 7 to 10. Pitfall, show, even.

Winner—B. h, by Falsetto—Sunglam. Off at first break to a good start. Won easily at the end; second and third were driving. The ride as much as anything else won for Sunburst. Bloss made little or no use of him the first part of the route and was only loafing in behind while Pete Kitchen and Chugnut were racing themselves to exhaustion. He made his move at the three-eighths pole and passed the tired ones in front of him as though they were tied. Chugnut may have been a trifle short. He stopped badly the last sixteenth. Double Dummy is a game horse and made up a lot of ground the last three furlongs. Overland deserves some attention from now on. Considering the ride he got, his race was a good one. Sunny was beaten off about a sixteenth of a mile.

Sunburst, place, 3 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Chugnut, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Double Dummy, show, 1 to 2.

CHICAGO, ILL., SEPTEMBER 24, 1898.

ONE OF COULTER'S YARNS.

"Tully" Coulter says that the first time the wiretappers ever got in their work was over at Hunter's Point, where were located a bevy of poolrooms. The horse that was sent as the winner was "Krupp Gun" and as many as twenty thousand dollars was paid out on him. There were only a few horses in the race and the odds were not very long. Nothing of suspicion arose in the minds of the robbers and as it was the second race of the day business was transacted on the other races as if nothing had happened.

After business was over Barney Aaron, the "caller to the ring" at the racetrack, chanced into a poolroom where the blackboard still displayed the entries and results of the day, and, glancing up, the old ex-champion lightweight pugilist, remarked: "Hi, there, ye bleeders! and what's that about Krupp Gun! The lobster, I swear, 'as a ring around 'im. 'Im wats not won a blooming race in years!"

"What's the matter Barney?" gasped the proprietor, "Didn't Krupp Gun win?" and then for the first time was discovered the robbery.

WINSLOW SURPRISES PEOPLE.

tors in the grand stand along by the betting ring, thought of course Heigh Ho had lasted long enough to get the second money. Everyone saw Winslow and Tranby ploughing along through the quagmire and wondered which one had landed first at the wire, as these horses ran home locked, but no one dreamed that the pair had beaten Heigh Ho. A bet of 100 to 1 was offered without a taker that Heigh Ho would be placed second, and even after the numbers were hoisted bets were offered that a correction would be made. However, Col. Clark is surely a man of good eyesight, and when a horse is stopping badly he can virtually stand still, which was probably the case with Heigh Ho. Taken all around, it was one of the most remarkable of races, and they do say that a horse never was seen to come from so far in the rear as did Winslow and land so close at the finish.

Winner—B. f. by Bermuda—Bettie C.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily. It was a hard drive for the place. As the race was run Pinar del Rio was much the best. She was last to leave the post and got into a bad mixup on the first turn. Little Jones used judgment after that and did not pump the filly out. He hugged the rails down the backstretch and saved all the ground possible. Inuendo looked all over a winner on the far turn, but when the boy reached for his whip he dropped the colt's head and he naturally floundered. Moroni ran a good race. She stopped and came again in the stretch. Czarowitz, heavily played, stopped right at the end. About three-quarters is his best race. Greyhurst did not run a half mile before he blew up. He is a bad horse these days. Swordsman's performance was bad.

Scratched—Globe II, 92.
Overweights—Muskadine, 5 pounds; Nat P., 2; Moroni, 2.
Pinar del Rio place, 2 to 1; show, even. Inuendo, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Moroni, place, 8 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g. by Glenelg—Moyno.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden and out to the last ounce; second and third were driving to the limit. Glenmoyno was best ridden. Bloss kept him up reasonably close the first part of the route, but still did not worry the old gelding by trying to catch Heigh Ho and Marzella. The latter two raced far out in front early and killed each other off. This was perhaps one of the most peculiar races ever run. Passing the half mile pole Winslow was almost a sixteenth of a mile behind the leaders. Sheppard had given up all hope of winning and just let the horse flounder about as he pleased. When those in front came back, Winslow, with a surprising turn of speed and gameness made a strong bid and at the finish was the freshest horse in the race. Those that saw the race from the head of the stretch could hardly believe that he won the place. Tranby also came with a phenomenal rush through the stretch. The early pace was fast, and the makers, Heigh Ho and Marzella, were ready to lie down in the stretch. They both swerved and collided. Ramiro II looked good but ran a very bad race. He was eased up at the end. Throw his race out entirely.

Scratched—Organ Pilot, 94; Official, 87; Inconstancy, 94.
Overweights—Governor Sheehan, 5 pounds; Ramiro II, 5.
Glenmoyno, place, 4 to 5; Winslow, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Tranby, show, 3 to 1.

Winner—B. c. by Albert—Montvale.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving hard. Albertvale was at home in the going and was much the best. Braw Lad was taken wide on the stretch turn. Annie M stopped when challenged. Dave S was none too well ridden. With a more vigorous ride he would have been second easily. Nutt waited too long with him.
Albertvale, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Braw Lad, place, 1 to 2. Dave S, show, 3 to 5.
